The Great Tour is a celebration of the City of Philadelphia and resources it has to offer both visitors and residents. The Tour also showcases the talents, commitment and expertise of its hard working tour guides

This FREE guided walking tour, covering over 200 historic sites and attractions, kicks off at 8:00 a.m. at WHYY Studios near Independence Park and winds to a close around 8:00 p.m. at the beautiful Fairmount Water Works on the Schuylkill River.

Led by expert guides from the tour association, the walking tour is divided into four consecutive 3-hour phases with different launch sites for each phase. Participants can elect to walk the entire tour from start to finish, or join in at any phase of the tour. Each launch site offers refreshments and public rest rooms

Pre-registration is encouraged. Visit <http://2011aptgreattour.eventbrite.com> to sign up.
